PAUL FENAROLI APPOINTED PRESIDENT & CEO OF EXAMINETICS, INC.

Veteran will lead company through next growth phase

OVERLAND PARK, KS, March 24, 2020 - Examinetics, the nation's leading provider of onsite occupational health services, announced today that its Board of Directors has elected Paul Fenaroli to serve as the company's President and Chief Executive Officer, and as a member of the Board of Directors.

Fenaroli had most recently been a consultant to financial sponsors, boards and CEOs of publicly and privately held companies in a variety of industries throughout the United States. He previously served as Chief Strategy Officer at Collective Brands, Inc. and as a Vice President and Partner at The Boston Consulting Group, after starting his career as a CPA with Ernst & Young. He holds an undergraduate degree from Lehigh University and an MBA with Distinction from The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.

"We are delighted to welcome Paul as our new President and CEO," said Brian Block, Partner at Freedom 3 Capital and a Board Member. "Paul is a proven leader and experienced executive who has excelled at strategic leadership and execution. He is well positioned to lead Examinetics in its continued transformation to be the leading provider of occupational health & safety services. With more than 30 years in executive leadership roles, Paul has demonstrated a strong track record in initiating and leading change, driving results, strengthening operations and innovating amid a rapidly evolving digital marketplace. Paul's financial and business acumen, integrity, commitment to employee engagement and talent management were important qualities considered by our search committee. Paul steps into the role on a permanent basis after serving in an interim role for the past 100 days during which his calm and steady hand has been invaluable as we navigate through the COVID-19 challenge."

"I am excited to enter this new phase of my career, taking on the CEO role for the first time," adds Fenaroli. "Examinetics is a leader in our field, and with significant opportunity still ahead of us. The entire Examinetics team has done an amazing job getting us to this point since our founding in 2004. My goal is to unleash the potential of our 300-plus employees and leverage technology to deliver flawless service on innovative programs to meet our clients' occupational health and safety needs."
